October 24 - 26, 2025

Join Miriam for a transformative journey to holistic wellness through the science and practice of mind-body medicine. With expert-led workshops, personalised self-care strategies, and curated experiences, you'll gain practical self-healing and stress management techniques, deepen your connection to self, and rejuvenate your mind, body, and spirit.

Mind

Inspire and expand your mind with workshops to enhance knowledge and clarity, and practices that tap into the mind's incredible powers.

Body

Revitalise your body with gentle movement practices, nutritious meals, and relaxation techniques to release stresses and tension.

Spirit

Nourish your spirit with meditation, communing with nature, and embrace a refreshed perspective on health and life.

Limited Spaces!

Our mission is to empower people to create a brighter future. A future of personal evolution, optimal health and sustainable wellbeing. To explore and expand human potential.

We accomplish this through providing world class programs and retreats that provide the tools and inspiration to help individuals and organisations take strategic action towards improving their health, wellbeing and ultimately their lives.

Our goal is to help people to level up their wellbeing through The Empowered Mind program.

We integrate evidence-based health psychology, with holistic complementary therapies, curated experiences, and guided self-reflection, to allow each individual to discover their own unique recipe for wellness. Additionally, we provide the strategies and resources to enable you to put your wellness plan into action and continue your transformation journey.

Deep Connection

Hey there, I'm Miriam, and I want to take you on a journey - my journey - a story of transformation, resilience, and empowerment.

Years ago, I was on a path to becoming a psychologist. But fate had a different plan. In the midst of uncertainty, I faced a health battle that shook me to my core. It was a turning point, a moment of reckoning.

That's when I discovered something extraordinary and life changing. Life coaching, NLP, mind-body and complementary therapies opened up new worlds of possibility.

Fast forward to today, and here we are at Quantum Retreats, a place where transformation isn't just a buzzword, it's a way of life. We're not just about retreats; we're about providing you with the tools and inspiration to take charge of your own wellbeing.

I stand here today as living proof that the power to heal, live with purpose, and thrive resides within all of us.

About Journey to Wellness

Who is this retreat for?

- Do you lead a busy life, often feeling overwhelmed and stressed?
- Would you like to feel more empowered with your health and wellbeing?
- Do you value personal growth and appreciate the importance of a holistic approach to wellness?
- Are you a health practitioner or coach who loves the idea of combining professional development with a rejuvenating weekend away?

If you answered 'yes' to any of these, this retreat is perfect for you!

Imagine a retreat where you can hit the reset button on your busy life. It's not just a getaway; it's a holistic experience that weaves together relaxation practices, mindful movement, inspiring workshops, soothing meditation, and delicious food all in a picturesque environment - your retreat oasis.

Picture yourself in a safe and welcoming place rediscovering your essence, releasing built up stress, and leaving with a renewed sense of peace, purpose and joy.

That's what this retreat is all about – an experiential journey to a more balanced and inspired you.

Our retreat starts on Friday October 24th at 2pm, and concludes about 1pm on Sunday October 26th.

What is Mind-Body Medicine?

Mind-body medicine (MBM) refers to the interdisciplinary approach of understanding and enhancing the interaction between the mind, body, and behaviour to improve health outcomes. From a health psychology perspective, mind-body medicine emphasises the connection between psychological processes, such as thoughts, emotions, and behaviors, and their impact on physiological health. This approach integrates evidence-based practices from psychology, medicine, and complementary therapies to promote wellbeing and manage disease.

The central tenet of MBM is that mental states, including stress, emotions, and attitudes, can influence physical health through physiological mechanisms. This connection is mediated through systems like the nervous, endocrine, and immune systems, which can be influenced by psychological and emotional factors. Techniques such as meditation, biofeedback, yoga, Qigong, and cognitive-behavioral therapy (CBT) are commonly employed in mind-body medicine to harness these connections for therapeutic benefit.

Several studies support the effectiveness of mind-body interventions. For example, a review by Irwin and Olmstead (2016) found that mindfulness-based stress reduction (MBSR) and related practices can reduce markers of inflammation, enhance immune function, and decrease psychological stress, which are all crucial for preventing and managing chronic conditions.

Similarly, research by Schneiderman et al. (2005) highlights the impact of stress on cardiovascular disease, emphasising that mind-body interventions targeting stress reduction can improve cardiovascular health.

Mind-body medicine has also gained traction in managing chronic pain, with meta-analyses showing that mind-body interventions like mindfulness meditation and relaxation techniques can significantly reduce pain intensity and improve quality of life (Goyal et al., 2014).

Mind-body medicine is the perfect complementary medicine. The regular use of MBM enhances the healing benefits of other treatments and modalities being used. MBM has no known contraindications or side effects. Best of all, MBM practices foster a sense of empowerment in one's own self-healing capacities, and are pleasant to do.

In summary, mind-body medicine is a holistic approach that integrates psychological and behavioral interventions with traditional medical practices to promote overall health. It is grounded in the scientific understanding of the bidirectional relationship between mental and physical health, grounded in a biopsychosocial perspective, with evidence supporting its role in the prevention and management of various health conditions.

Curated Experiences

Somatic Movement

In this movement-based workshop, you will explore somatic therapy, a body-centered approach to healing that recognises the deep connection between the mind and body. Your experienced facilitator, Ruth, will guide you to work with physical sensations, posture, breath, and movement to process and release stored tension. You will learn simple techniques to help you increase body awareness, regulate your nervous system, and safely release physical and emotional tensions.

Sound Bath with Rebecca

Rebecca's sound baths are a deeply immersive, five-stage journey. A guided meditation, softly supported by sound, helps you relax, connect to inner peace, and set a personal or shared intention. The soundscape of an intuitive blend of musicality, attunement to group energy, and therapeutic use of tone flows seamlessly through peaks and valleys that are both grounding and transcendent. A moment of stillness allows for integration, before you are gently guided back into the present.

Yoga with Mel

Yoga is a holistic mind-body practice that combines physical postures (asanas), breath control (pranayama), and meditation (dhyana) to promote physical, mental, and emotional wellbeing. Rooted in ancient Indian philosophy, yoga is designed to unify the mind, body, and spirit. Yoga offers numerous health benefits by enhancing flexibility, strength, relaxation, and mindfulness. We will be having a yoga session to start our day on the Saturday, with options for a bodies and fitness levels.

Curated Experiences

Restorative Yoga

Allow yourself to unwind layers of tension as you soften into the most comfortable and supported restorative yoga poses while you are immersed in healing sounds. Your yoga instructor, Mel, has been guiding students on their yoga journey for nearly a decade, helping them find calm, clarity, and connection through yoga and meditation. Restorative yoga allows your body to be held in deeply nurturing positions, and unwind layers of tension. Guaranteed to leave you feeling like you're floating on air.

Flow with GYROKINESIS®

GYROKINESIS® is a flowing series of movements performed on stools, mats and laying down. Your experienced instructor, Nadine, will take you through a series of movements that includes postural awareness, co-ordinating breathing patterns with activation of the spine and all joints through arching, curling, spiralling and undulating movements. You will finish the session feeling revitalised and refreshed; relaxed but knowing you've worked your body!

Balance: The Physical Perspective

Join Nadine Welke for an engaging, hands-on workshop that blends science, movement, and play to enhance your body's natural balance. Through an experiential approach, you'll explore the key systems that keep you steady and strong — the proprioceptive, vestibular, and visual systems — while also improving mobility and strengthening the muscles of your core, legs, and hips. This 60 minute session is as educational as it is energising, with playful, practical activities that leave you feeling more grounded, agile, and confident in your body's capabilities.

Our Venue: Riverdell Spiritual Centre

The Centre

Riverdell Spiritual Retreat Centre hosts a variety of workshops and retreat events that provide opportunities for self-empowerment and conscious living. They offer teaching and accommodation spaces suitable for small and medium groups and are situated on a 3.5-hectare block on the banks of the Gawler River, only 45km's from Adelaide's CBD.

Riverdell Spiritual Centre is a place for those seeking deeper connection — with themselves, with others, and with something greater. It has grown from a legacy of spiritual service and conscious living, shaped by decades of heartfelt community and transformational practice. It offers a tranquil environment where individuals and groups can reconnect, recharge, and grow.

The Spaces

The Sanctuary is a sacred space at Riverdell and will be where many of our workshops and immersive experiences will be held. It seats up to 40, and is a stand-alone cedar, single room building equipped with surround sound home theater system, data projector and easy wheelchair access.

Upon entering the Sanctuary, people often experience a sense of calm and tranquility as the natural timbers radiate warmth and beauty. The Sanctuary is a versatile space, perfect for presentations and workshops, as well as Meditation and Yoga.

Riverdell is equipped with The Dining Room that is perfect for workshops where tables and chairs might be required. It is well equipped with urns, tea & coffee selections and a natural outlook over the property at Riverdell.

Accommodation

Karrawirra

Named after the Kaurna word for “redgum forest,” Karrawirra pays tribute to the original custodians of the land and the redgums along the Gawler River. This modern, three-bedroom self-contained home features a spacious living room, with a Wi-Fi-enabled 55-inch Smart TV. The well-equipped kitchen, 2 showers, and toilets, along with 3 comfortable, air-conditioned bedrooms, provide a welcoming environment. Disability access is also available.

Sumai

Newly renovated and thoughtfully furnished, Sumai is a welcoming sanctuary. Overlooking the Gawler River and the picturesque Dell, this tranquil haven invites you to slow down, recharge, and reconnect with yourself and nature.

Sumai is a fully self-contained, five-bedroom home designed for comfort and serenity. With a spacious kitchen upstairs, a convenient kitchenette downstairs, two modern bathrooms, two scenic balconies, and undercover parking, it provides the perfect setting for a comfortable and relaxing retreat setting.

Between Karrawirra and Sumai, there is space for 14 guests to enjoy twin share accommodation. Our team will allocate you to your room. We recommend booking with a friend so you can share this wonderful experience together.

We have the Day Retreat option for those who wish to attend the retreat but would like to stay offsite overnight (e.g. at home, at alternative accommodation nearby).

Please contact us at admin@quantumretreats.com.au for questions about the accommodation and what might be best suited for your needs.
